

FROTH OR FOAM?

'Twas the Fateful Question Which Changed Two Young Deftines.

She was a proud, impetuous girl and could brook no opposition, while he was imperious and egotistical and never took back anything. They were at Niagara falls with her paw and maw just a week before the day set for their marriage. They sat alone on a battlement at the extreme end of Prospect park, and by and by she looked up and said:

"George, why do the vexed waters froth?"

"They don't," he promptly answered, "they foam."

"But it's the same thing!"

"Oh! no. There's a large distinction between froth and foam. You get one with soda water and the other with beer—about three cents worth to the glass."

"George d'Arcy, the waters froth!" she indignantly exclaimed as her beautiful eyes flashed like fireflies on a dark night.

"Helena Montmartre, the waters foam!" he sturdily replied as he fished for another cigarette.

"They froth!"

"They foam!"

"Then, sir, farewell! We could not live happily together. I will seek some frothy young man who will try to make my life happy, and you can probably find a foamy young woman with no opinions of her own."

And so they parted forever. For one brief moment the great cataract ceased to pour and to roar and to froth and foam. Then it resumed business with renewed energy, and broken hearts and tears of regret and wrecked lives flowed on as before.

SERIOUS INDIAN OUTBREAK.

It Is Now Threatened On the Yuma Reservation.

Washington, Sept. 30.—A serious Indian outbreak is threatened on the Yuma reservation in California. Maguel, a deposed chief, with a band of his tribe, is reported to have attacked the reservation schoolhouses. It is not known as yet how serious the attack was, nor is it known if any one was killed. This information was received at the interior department by telegraph today from Indian Agent Estudillo, of the Yuma reservation.

Secretary Hoke Smith, on receiving the dispatch, forwarded it to the war department, with a request that troops be at once sent to the scene of the outbreak. Agent Estudillo, in his dispatch, also informed the secretary of the interior that Chief Maguel had been accused of preventing the Indian children of the tribe of which he was formerly chief from attending school. The Yumas, among whom trouble has arisen, number 1,000. Their reservation is in the southwest corner of California, and on both sides of the Colorado river, 150 miles from Phoenix, Ariz. The schoolhouse attacked is the old Fort Yuma. The Yumas are considered by the Indian bureau officials as degraded and lazy. They have always been noted for their friendly relations with the whites. The nearest army post to the reservation is Fort Grant, in Eastern Arizona. It would take about 48 hours for the soldiers to reach the scene of the trouble from that point.

A Good Thing.

For the prompt relief of pain of all kinds there is nothing so good as Dr. Hart's Great Relief. This remedy is so well known that it is probably not necessary to speak of its merits, but least there should be some one who has failed to give it a trial, we say if you have any sort of pain, try Dr. Hart's Relief.
